WHEELING, WEST VA., MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 7, 1881.

The Intelligencer.

CAPT. BOR McELDOWNEY is a man with-We have observed his theologi-al weakness in this respect for a long time. And now he calls for a visible, corporea ad tangible show up of the syndicate that be behind the River railroad. unts for naught with him. He wants to see, feel and smell the syndicate in s and a part of the Senate; Pennclects a State Treasurer and county in Wisconsin and Virginiar State will be chosen, with members of the houses of the Legislatures art of the Senators; Minnesota or State officers and a full are, with two Judges; Colects judges and county officers; a elects a judge of the Supremed regents of the university; Maryes for State comptroller and a part splatture, and Mississippi elects a stature, and Mississippi elects a stature, with State officers. Wissisture, with State officers. Wissisture, with State officers. Wissisture, and Mississippi elects a stature, with State officers. Wissisture, and Mississippi elects a stature, and Mississippi elects a stature, with State officers. Wissisture, and Mississippi elects a stature, and Mississippi elects a s for State comptroller and a part will act upon constitutional provisions reng taxation, prohibiting special legisla-originally a local issue has changed into a great contest between the old parties on nes growing out of the war. The Chicago ourbonism and the aspiration of a younger and wiser generation to escape from the call weight of that mill-stone of the past, his is ireely admitted by thoughful observers in the provincial capital. The took intelligent followers of Mahone have ally 'no sympathy with his financial cas," which with Mahone himself, are chaps advanced rather as a means than a an end. They have accepted his adrebilp because they "thought ley saw in him a leader bold had resolute enough to set affance old party prejudices," and carry a the fight until the regime of Bourbons on the slavery era should be overthrown, his, it is claimed, has been and is the real m of the Mahone movement. That it is sout to succeed is reluctantly admitted, rather, is painfully apprehended, by the or, as it appears, the unhappy) man being a Mr. Whitney, a wealthy and well-known stock operator of New York. For a long time past he has pressed the fair diva to name the day, but she has with equal persistence opposed his urgency, evidently being reluctant to close her brilliant public career in the zenith of its success.

Whitney has adopted a system of mild correion, which consists in accompanying Miss Kellogy in all her professional journeyings—an arrangement in itself not at all disagreeable to the lady, who is sincere-ly attached to her flance, but which is just would be only too pleasant for the young lely to enjoy the constant attendance of her sweetheart; but as matters stand, she is not a little worried over it. This is perfectly well known to Mr. Whitney, and forms an element in the coercion scheme. It has a neged her to a bandon all her concretengagements and go to the altar at ence, and to her persistent refusal he opposes his persistent attendance.

The ardient lover has been in Chicago daring Miss Keilogg's engagement this week and hast, and in a good humored way announces his intention to keep up the excertion as long as alie does. It is said that aday or two ago Miss Keilogg was describing her predicament to Mrs. Herbert Ayer, of this city, who is one of her intimate and consideratial friends. After listening to the merical Mrs. Ayer exclaimed: "Well, why will of two more than a greed that this might be done were it not for being away from home, and not liking to be married in a hote." (J. dear, said her sprightly friend, we can arrange that easily enough, Just some to our house and be married right age.

That this offer involved a wedding got up on as brilliant a scale as she could deare. Miss Kellogg well knew, and it was plain that she was strongly tempted to avail herself of the generous proposition. So stands the matter at present, and it is floogift not at all unlikely that Mr. Whitber will be rewarded for his patience and has pestering at no distant day. Indeed, Miss Kellogg's friends here are quite confident that such will be the outcome, and clear they wouldn't be surprised if it happened almost any day within a week or respect to the confederate bond spectrate bond spectrate bond spectrate Stores in charge of the division of captured and abandoned property, say they don't believe there is any balance in England they were constantly begging for money up to the collapse. Notwithstanding this proposition.

Among the effects in this division are numerous letters from Mason and Sidell, may be a subject to the Confederate States abroad, and they were cou

WASHINGTON NEWS.

INTERESTING NATIONAL AFFAIRS.

Questions" Involved-A Dialogue on the Virginia Bebt-About Confederate Bonds.

WASHINGTON, November 5 .- Bob Ingersoll finished his argument in the Star route case to-day to the pleasing music of applauding hands. It was of course an best style, but it contained more of anecdote than authority, more rhetorical pyro-Connecticut elects half its technics than legal principles and prece-New York votes for Secretary dents. His thesis was that process by information is unconstitutional. It is in con-Appeals, etc., and elects a Legislature; in flict with the genius of our institutions and 22d and 27th districts, Con- with the rights of American citizens. He Jersey elects its House of Repre-and a part of the Senate; Penn-he could only be tried upon indictment by words more. — Judge Cox will undoubtedly take several days in which to decide upon the nice and novel questions submitted.

If he decides, as the bar of the district trict expects he will, the counsel for the prosecution will make an effort to indict Bridy, French and Turner before the grand inter. They fear that the statutes of limits.

They fear that the statutes of limita-ould bar the prosecution of McDontion would bar the prosecution of McDonough and Brown.

The counsel for the Star route men claim that it would bar all five; that if the information is thrown out the prosecution of these men at least is barred. If the information is held to be good, the counsel for the Star route men will move to quash it on account of its immateriality. If this motion be denied, and this process by information be established as constitutional, and this established as constitutional, and this particular information be held to be mate-rial in allegation and perfect in form, there is little doubt that any subsequent prosecu-tions in this connection will be by infor-

It would take a long time to secure an in-dictment from the grand jury in any one of Evidence for the grand jury in the Dor sey case may not be ready until the middle of next month. An information, of course, could be filed at once.

Two United States Senators and a New York capitalist were recently in conversa-tion here. The subject was the peculiar campaign in Virginia, and the more pecu-liar relation of outside parties to it. The conversation took this turn:

First United States Senator—"I own a quarter of a million of United States bonds, and am often asked by my Democratic brethren (who are very apprehensive about the public credit) if I ain't afraid to go in with Mahone on a platform of so-called re-adjustment, and how I would like it for the same plan of readjustment to be ap-dedicated to this object. The letter of Mrs. Garfield expressing approval of the proposed memorial, and announcing her intention to contribute, is accepted as a gratifying indorsement, and the prospects of successions. gratilying indorsement, and the prospects of success from the report of A. S. Solo-mons, Esq., Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, submitted at a meeting of that committee yesterday evening, are very encouraging.

CONFEDERATE BONDS

There has been considerable speculation and guessing as to the amount of Confederate bonds held by the United States Gov

These bonds, together with about fifty million dollars in Confederate notes, are among the captured and abandoned property of the rebellion in the Treasury, and were never counted until the last few days. Accounts show that there are about $20,would be only too pleasant for the young lay to enjoy the constant attendance of the constant attendan eart; but as matters stand, she is Treasury. These bonds were captured at tates. The indications are, that the bottom has dropped out of the Confederate bond spec-ulation. There are no more orders to bankers here, from New York, and a few are purchasing, at their risk, as low as $1.50 BULLS, BEARS, LAMBS. per $1.000.

The State Department has received a report from the Consul at Hayana, in relation to the alleged Mexican outrage upon citizens of the United States engaged in collecting guano near Key Arenas, and arrested by Mexican authorities. The Consul says the Americans were simply arrested for trespass, and the question is entirely as to the ownership of the guano deposits, and does not involve any international controversy.

General H. G. Wright, Chief of Engineers of the U. S. Army, has submitted his CAPITAL NOTES.

tional controversy.

General H. G. Wright, Chief of Engineers of the U. S. Army, has submitted his annual report to the Secretary of War. During the past fiscal year work upon the sea coast defenses has been limited in accordance with the terms of the act of March 3, 1881, to their protection, preservation and repair. He calls attention to the importance of early and reasonable expenditures on the sea coast defences.

Hon. Lionel Sackvitle West, new British Minister, arrived here Saturday afternoon. At the close of husiness Saturday, there

At the close of business Saturday, there and been $8,566,200 United States bonds recived for redemption under the one hun-redth and fifth call.

ureuth and fifth call.

During the week ending to-day there were 335,000 standard silver dollars placed in circulation, against 445,500 for the same period last trees. period last year.

The President intends to return next Friday.

Friday.
The coming gay season promises to be a brilliant and lively one.
Secretary Windom has returned from New York, and was at the Treasury Department Saturday.
Judge Folger will formally enter upon the discharge of his duties as Secretary of the Treasury on the 14th inst.
The Confederate bond boom has petered out here. Sales were made Satrday at prices ranging from $1 50 to $3 per thousand.

ranging from $1.50 to $3 per thousand.

Postmaster-General James will probably rosinaster-teneral James win protably urge postal savings banks and postal telegraphy in his annual report to Congress.

Miss Blaine, daughter of the Secretary of State, sailed for Europe Saturday from Philadelphia, with Minister Hamlin and familie.

Saturday was Mr. J. Crutchett, of Philadel-phia, who superintended the first lighting of the Capitol with gas, and who also intro-duced gas into the White House for the duced gas into the White House for the first time at his own expense during President Monroe's Administration.

The furniture for the east room of the White House is expected in a few days. Part of it was selected by Mrs. Garfield in June last, and the remainder by Colonel Rockwell since the death of President Garfield. The prevailing color is old gold on dark material. There will be but little upholstered furniture, and in its place much hard wood finish in the Eastlake and Queen Anne styles. The hangings will be of corresponding style.

OMAHA, NEB., November 5.—Colonel Watson B. Smith, Clerk of the United o'clock this morning, with a bullet through his head. Colonel Smith had been very prominent in enforcing the new liquor was assassinated just as he was leaving his with the second control with t "bull-log" self-cocking revolver, one cham-ber discharged, the bullet flattened, and blood was found on the floor. No other traces of the assassin. Smith was seen writing in his office about 11 o'clock, and it is presumed the murder was committed about an hour afterwards, as the body, when found, was partly cold. Smith has been very prominently identi-fying himself for several months with the temperance cause, efforcing the Slocumb tying himself for several months with the temperance cause, enforcing the Slocumbl. Law against liquor dealers and causing the arrest of numerous saloon keepers. He was Chairman of the "Law and Order Committee," so-called.

It is not thought, however, that the Liquor Association, or, the better class of Liquor Association, or, the better class of

New York, November 5.—The Newark

Advertiser publishes the following: The Government Examiner of the Mechanics' to enable England to snap her fingers at Bank has finished his preliminary labors and forwarded his report to the Comptroller of the Currency at Washington, and left the bank in the hands of the Receivers. The following shows the real condition of accounts as the Examiner leaves them. The details will appear in the official report, which will be published hereafter:

Hills discounted. United States bonds. Real estate. Baiance due from banks other than Me-	500,000
chanics', New York Bank notes and specie Checks on Newark and New York banks Cash Hemil. Due from United States Treasurer.	192,500 147,000 85,500 22,500 28,500 6,752
	-
Total LIABILITIES.	-
Capital stock Surplus and profits Circulation Amount due depositors	$500,000 485,000 450,000 2,441,122
Amount due banks.  Over drait at Mechanics' National Bank, New York.	296,657 273,473

FREAKS IN STOCKS AND GRAIN.

ures of the Chicago Markets-Fleeced Lambs. Movements in Wall Street-Upheaval who lost so rapidly were outside lambs.

Wheat of power his friends would not so largely the last increase their holdings at this day. settle down to a healthier basis. has fallen about 94c, a bushel in the last has fallen about 9c, a bushel in the last eight days, corn 6c, oats about 3c, pork over $1 per barrel, and lard 30c, per 100 lbs.—both seller January.

The Wall street clique joined the sellers to-day, and $5. Louis was also thought to be figuring on that side, having arrived at the conclusion that it was not best to mortgage everything they had for the mere glory of going down with the ship. The packers here are said to have added a good many thousand dollars to what was before a very respectable bank account, and the a very respectable bank account, and the local short operators in corn begin to think deatt out not long ago to Cincinnati and New York.

To-day corn was the weakest article, fall-ing off 1 Ja 1 to per bushel, while wheat fol-lowed with a drop of 1c; oats 1c; pork 20a 22 1c, and lard 12c. There was some reac-tion later, but most of the markets again turned down, and the classing feature was

f grain are small, and exceeded by the spring wheat was very active and office weak, though it did not break so badly as on the previous day. The market declined 1c, then advanced 1c, and closed fact below the latest prices of Friday. Liverpool was reported steady and a little firmer on winter wheat, but private advices noted a weak feeling, as was natural on receipt of on the previous day. The market declined 1c, then advanced 1½c, and closed fa½c below the latest prices of Friday. Liverpool was reported steady and a little firmer on winter wheat, but private advices noted a weak feeling, as was natural on receipt of the news from this city. Our receipts were again small, and those of the week but slightly exceeded the reported shipments. The market opened considerably higher, in sympathy with the early news from New York and a drizzling sky here, but selling orders came in thickly, chiefly from the seaboard, and the market went down rapidly while these were being filled, though it was not nearly so weak as corn.

Corn was active and very weak. The market declined 1 al 2c, and reached la 1 c, closing tale below the latest prices of Fricay.

States Courts for several years, and was a gentleman highly respected in the community.

Colonel W. D. British markets were case day. The British markets were case during the state of the several several day. The British markets were case during the several day. The British markets were case during the several day. The British markets were case during the several day.

cheaply by purchasing the regular article and wearing yellow spectacles while eating it.

Mr. Omer Grandjeau, of Paris, writes as follows, under date of October 23:

"Having had a crop fair in quantity and good in quality, our farmers are able to supply us with enough wheat at prices highly remunerative to them. This will carry us along comfortably until February to the supplies to a state supplies. Chairman or unctee," so-called.

It is not thought, however, that the Liquor Association or the better class of dealers had anything to do with the crime.

Lixcoln, Neb., November 5.—Governor Vance offers a reward for the apprehension of the murderer of Watson B. Smith at Omaha last night.

NEWARH BANK FAILURE.

Stated by the supply us wall be remunerative to them.

Indiply remunerative to them. supplies from yours, as our total needs will probably aggregate twenty million hectoliters for the twelve months. There is ters for the twelve months. There is enough wheat in Russia, India and Australia America this year."

The sale of a Board of Trade membership

THE NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, November 5.—The stock market has been strong and with a decided upward tendency. The bulls have been in good spirits to-day, as they sent prices up, and, of course, there was a consequent bear depression. The foreign buying has been a source of strength in the market for several days, and has been especially potent to-day. European investors realize that prices here for first-class securities are low. and they are availing themselves of the opportunity to buy for investment and specu lation.

A well-posted broker, who leans to the bull side of the market, said to-day: "The upward movement of Eric continues, with a fair prospect that the stock will go above A well-posted broker, who leans to the famount dise depositors.

A well-posted broker, who leans to the unit will also defend the market, said to-day: "The transport of the public of soon. Important developments in connection with the move in progress will transport on the stockholders. As to losses by depositors, the examiner estimates, after making allowances for all probable losses, that the depositors will receive from 50 to 60 per cent, and the stockholders will lose an amount equal to their stock additional.

Pryor Parges Hisself of Centempt.
Providency, R. L., November 6.—In the Supreme Court Saturday Roger Pryor, counsel in the Sprague case, purged himself of contempt by apologising for the stachment in New York.

A well-posted broker, who leans to the upward movement of Eric continues, with a fair prospect that the stock will go above the providence in the stockholders will transpire next week. It can be predicted with fair afterly that Mr. Goolid will be tendered the Presidency of the Company and the privilege of naming Directors, among other whose names could not be obtained.

Pryor Parges Hisself of Centempt.
Paovidence the providence of the pilot.

Should this development transpire the Baltimore & Ohio Road would be the only troblesome factor in the trunk line situation. Mr. Gould is very friendly with the Should be the only vania Central management. The Pennsylvania Central management to the Pennsylvania Central management. The Pennsylvania Central the Erie and the Pennsylvania Companies in accord, the Baltimore & Ohio could be put under considerable pressure. The report that the Union Pacific Com-pany will make a contract with the Pacific Mail is unfounded. The Union Pacific Company says that no such contract will be made for the present, and insiders in Pacific Mail intimate that the stock will go Western Union is likely to start up next Western Union is likely to start up next week. Its dullness this week has grown out of the fact that the insiders seem to be waiting for one another to begin the up-ward movement.

Texas Pacific advanced steadily to-day upon good buying. It is, perhaps, the safest purchase in the market, and one that will be appreciated when the importance will be appreciated when the importance of the Gould-Huntington compact is real-ized. The earnings of the Texas Pacific during the next year will warrant a very large advance in the price of the stock, and, as Wall street always anticipates, the rise is likely to come soon. old operators speak of the speculative craze of the past three months as the greatest ever known, and say it is only natural and reasonable for prices to decline. The inflation era is over with, and it must be expected that everything would it must be expected that everything would about Mr. Vanderbilt holding the balance of reversity friends would not so largely

MILITARY MEANNESS.

Investigation of the Charges Against the Ninth Massachusetts. RICHMOND, VA., November 5.—Major H. and D. T. Dolan, constituting a commis-sion sent by the Adjutant General of Massachusetts to investigate the conduct of efore the Ninth Massachusetts Regiment, while About twenty witnesses have been examined, making fifty or sixty in all. The testimony was damaging to the Massachusetts

> Several misses testified that soldiers made Several misses testified that soldiers made indecent proposals to them.
>
> An ex-detective officer testified that his daughter was slapped and knocked down by a soldier, and had her hat thrown into the street, and a young lady accompanying her was kissed by one of the soldier. The gentleman looked for the soldier who bad so greatly insulted his doubter.

could not find him.

A*lady, a school teacher, testified that as able was driving in her buggy, a group of three soldiers stopped her horse and beat the animal over the head.

A negro girl testified that soldiers stopped her in the street and hugged and kissed bear.

A well-known merchant testified to the bad conduct on Main street, of a group headed by a soldier wearing the stripes of a non-commissioned officer. Members of the Ninth Massachusetts devilty.

A reporter this evening called upon the Military Commission now here investigating the alleged misconduct of the Ninth Massachusetts [Regiment, for the purpose of obtaining the alleged misconductors].

Captain A. M. Hutchison, General Man-ager of the St. Louis and St. Paul Packet Line, is of the opinion that the boat can be fully $150,000. No insurance.

The War Eagle was valued at $40,000, and insured for $25,000. One-third of the cargo will be saved. No bodies have been found. It is known

No bodies have been found. It is known that one man, large, portly and well dress-ed, jumped into the river and was drowned, going down when a skiff was within a few feet of him. A colored deck-hand was struck by a piece of the iron bridge and instantly killed, falling into the river; name not known.

The following passengers are known to e saved: Mrs. T. R. Davis, New York. Mrs. F. C. Townsend and Miss Morville, Mass F. C. Townseld and Miss Morville, Hannibal.

Miss Sardoris, Clinton.
Mrs. Dr. Condon and Mrs. Condon, Washington, Iowa.
Mrs. Anna Whiteand Miss Marie White,

Mrs. Anna White and Miss Marie White,
Lansing, Iowa.
Dr. Atkins and wife, Chicago.
T. L. Kendall, Baltimore.
F. L. Streal and C. W. Norton, Chicago.
W. Porterfield, Montana.
J. Smith, Memphis.
Dr. J. E. Gardner, W. H. Roscoe, Dr. W.
H. Hunt, Ike Rue, M. Payton and Charles Armour and wife, Wizard Oil Company.
Mrs. H. T. Bradish, Fort Madison.
E. A. Woods and wife, Sabula.

F. A. Woods and wife, Sabula. B. Kemper and wife, and Wm. Holmes. B, Kemper and wife, and Wm. Holm St. Louis.
James Hennesy, St. Louis.
John Page and wife, St. Louis.
John Perry, St. Paul.
Enos Poole, Padiucah, Ky.
Lawrence Kimball, St. Paul.
James Mulligan, Minneapolis.
Margaret Mulligan and daughter,
Louis.

A DOCK DONE FOR

The little village of Capac, seven miles above here, was shocked this morning by Lamp - Shipping Property Destroyed. Loss Half a Million Bollars.

mpany, Hamburg, and leased by the Wilson and Eagle steamship companies, two full cargoes of merchandise, one just unloaded from the Wilson line steamer Rialto, plying between Hoboken and Hull, the National line steamer to sail in a few tity of cotton and steel rails, was owned by New York merchants. The dock, fully insured, was constructed eight years ago, at a cost of $250,000, and was 710 feet long at a cost of $250,000, and was 710 feet long and 80 feet wide. Several barges and a lighter in close proximity to the fire were also destroyed. The steamship Rialto, but for the arrival of a tug, would have been destroyed. Her rigging caught fire in sev-eral places, and portions of the wood-work on deck also ignited. She was hauled into the stream and anchored and the flames ex-tinguished.

the stream and anchored and the flames extinguished.

Captain Harvey worked so carnestiy to save his ship that when her safety was assured he fell prone to the deck. The City Physician was summoned and the captain recovered. The excursion steamer Plymouth Rock, in winter quarters, was in imminent danger. She was actually on fire at times, in several places, but was too wet out, and escaped with trifling injury. Of the barges destroyed, two were laden with hay, and belonged to Niveson & Co.

The fire blazed away throughout the night, reaching every part of the extensive pler.

One origin of the fire was given as follows: The watchman had applied a lighting contrivance to a small lin kerosene

One origin of the fire was given as follows: The watchman had applied a light-ing contrivance to a small tiln kerosene lamp attached to a pole to gaze on the dock, and almost instantly the cotton and a quantity of loose cakum strewed around a quantity of loose cakum strewed around were ablaze. The disastrous consequences are accounted for in this way. The Hoboken fire department and city authorities have been for some time at loggerheads, the latter, according to the fremen, refusing to furnish the proper supplies to the department; furthermore, recently the authorities designated the engine houses as places of registration for yoters, an action which the firemen loudly protested against. When an alarm was sounded, the fire apparatus was found with tongues turned to the wall, and only one of the seven engines comprising the department responded. The chief refused to order the men out until he received a certain guarantee. When these guarantees were given by the Mayor the engines reached the scene of the fire fire fact to order the men out until he received a certain guarantee. When these guarantees were given by the Mayor the engines reached the scene of the fire fat larm was given and too late to prevent the conflagration. The Mayor on being informed of the condition of affairs telegraphed to New York and Jersey City for aid, and the two cities promptly responded. The large storehouse that stands on the shore end of the dock and is used by 'all the steamship companies whose vessels land at Hoboken, 'One of the condition of affairs telegraphed to New York and Jersey City for aid, and the two cities promptly responded. The large storehouse that stands on the shore end of the dock and is used by 'all the steamship companies whose vessels land at Hoboken, 'One of the dock and is used by 'all the steamship companies whose vessels land at Hoboken, 'One of the conditions, and the first balary the first balance of the conditions of the many three propers. A curious plants are proposed. The chief refused to the conditi the dock and is used by 'all the steamship companies whose vessels land at Hoboken, was on fire at one time, but the flames were extinguished before material damage was done. The total loss is placed at half a s to be best man and President Arthur's

The Sole Survivor.

Incendiary Fire.

PRINCETON, N. J., October 5.—An incendiary fire destroyed the Pennsylvania Central round house and contents including a locomotive. Loss, $15,000.

A MICHIGAN MADMAN

Murders His Child and Then Commit FINLDLAY CITY, MICH., November 5,- the announcement that a frightful tragedy had been enacted by an insane father, who own throat. The crime was committed by Charles Hebden Arich, a widely known boken this afternoon totally destroyed the Michigan farmer, living two miles south of correspondent telegraphs: It is now evi-Eagle Dock, owned by the Hoboken Dock Capac. For a number of years Hebden dent that Russia has been the dupe of Gerhad been regarded as one partially de-He has had his insane freaks, and yester-day expressed the opinion that it had been ordained that he was to die at 8 o'clock this morning, and he ordered the family to summon one of the village lawyers for the purpose of making his will. His whim was gratified, and the will drawn up at his dictation and formally executed. Nothing further occurred, and the madman gave no evidence of the awful crime he had in contemplation until this morning. Very soon after breakfast he commenced telling about his approaching demise. As the hour about his approaching demise. As the hour of 8 passed, he began talking very rapidly and incoherently, ending by whipping out a ruxor, when the members of the family ran frightened from the room, calling to and furniture were spattered with blood Hebden was an old resident and widel known and respected throughout this been a member of the last House, has a more general acquaintance with the members, but the result will, he says, depend on the ability of the candidates to manipulate the scattering votes which will be cast on the first build in the caucus.

Of the position of President pro tem. of the Senate, Senator Hollingsworth says: "The office of President pro tem. of the Senate does not excite much interest, and I have heard the names of two Senators—Pond, of Morgan, and Horr, of Lorain—mentioned in connection with it. Senator Pond, it is understood, has declined to be a candidate, preferring to renain at the mentioned in connection with it. Senator Pond, it is understood, has declined to be a candidate, preferring to remain at the head of the Judiciary Committee, a very much more important position, and one in which he served with signal ability in the last Senate. This leaves Senator Horr, so far take place in Trinity Chapel November 16, at which Dr. Dix is to officiate. The lady is the daughter of Professor Charlier, age twenty, and beautiful. The young man is Mr. Howe, the private secretary of Postmaster Pearson. He is of good family, but poor. When Charlier, who has not objected to Howe's attentions to his daughter, heard of the engagement, he forbade it. Another sister and the young mother of the girl took the lovers' part, and were ordered out of the house.

Dr. Morgan, of St. Thomas' Episcopal Church, declined to marry the couple without Charlier's consent, but Dr. Dix, of old Trinity, who had looked into the matter, says the young people are right, and he will perform the ceremony on November 16, Postmaster General James' son Frank.

know who are running for office. It is safe to say, that during the past twenty-five years there has not been such a feeling of apathy in any political campaign. This is the most effish of off years. The clarion ted flight. is to be large. The girls are now staying with friends, and the brother who is going to give his sister away, has left a letter and gone to work in a store. When his father, who is very rich, ordered him out of the house, he gave him a $20 bill. It is expected that a great crowd will attend the welding. fallen upon listless ears. Theaverage voter wedding.

New York News Notes.

Ngw York, November 6.—Five thousand people paid twenty-five cents each admission fee to the Caledonia Park, Jersey City, to listen to O'Connor, member of the British Parliament, speaking in the interest of the land league in Ireland.

Dr. Ambrose Goetz, a Russian political Ingitive practicing medicine here, was found dead in bed. Supposed suicide. The doctor was well to do in St. Petersburg, but becoming an advocate of advanced liberal opinions, was forced to fly and his property was confiscated. His wife and child in Russia survive him.

Ngy York, November 6.—President Arthur remained in his house to-day and was called upon by many well known gentlemen, including General Grant, General Horace Porter, John Roach, Richard Grant White, and Koger A. Pryor. In the evening the President Lad a conference with Horace Porter, John Roach, Richard Grant White, and Roger A. Pryor. In the evening the Prosident had a conference with Secretary Blaine in the Fifth Avenue hotel.

Vanderbilt Gives it Up.

Chicano, November 6.—The officials of the Lake Shore Road are doubtless ignorant of the programme for the lightning express, and the public are uninformed from official sources. Elsewhere it is said Vanderbilt has met with so many difficulties in competing with the Pennsylvania Road's fast time that he has given up the fast train from Chicago to New York, and will not attempt to beat the Pennsylvania's time from New York to the west. The from official sources. Elsewhere it is said Vanderbilt has met with so many difficulties in competing with the Pennsylvania Hoad's fast time that he has given up the fast train from Chicago to New York, and will not attempt to beat the Pennsylvania's time from New York to the west. The difficulty arises from the longer route of the Vanderbilt combination and from the jealousy of the Michigan Central and the Canada Roads, which must be left out in the cold.

A Bad Importation.

Bosron, November 6.—The captain of the steamer Victoria, from Liverpool, today handed over to the police Michael Rean, of Roscommon, Ireland, who probably fatally shot David Turner, an Englishman, both steerage passengers. On Regan's person at the time were found a murderous looking knife and a number of cartridges. He is thought to be insane.

Cincinnati, November 6.—The Gazetie's Madison, Ind., special reports twelve cases of small pox there. The trustees have ordered the schools to be closed.

Recentlary Fire.

CZAR AND EMPEROR.

RUSSIA THE DUPE OF GERMANY

Interview-Irish Land Leagues Forcing Their "No Rent" Policy - Blaine's Foreign Policy Criticized.

view, and several Hungarian papers, supposed to have been inspired by Bismarck, have engaged in bitter words on the sub-ject with the Russian press. While this King of Italy and the Emperor of Austria was quietly arranged. The Russian Govtion, and an acrid communication has street more than ever. The matter was dis-cussed in secret council Tuesday, but seri-ous, if not insuperable difficulties seem to be in the way of the arrangement. The Emperor of Austria has no pretext for go-ing to the frontier, and the Czar can not leave his dominions until after his corona-tion.

The Czar will leave Gatschtna in five or six weeks for Anitskelf, which relace is six weeks for Anitskeff, which palace is protected against the danger of mines by counter mines surrounding the building. Prince Orloff has received a telegraphic ummons to Gatschting.

BLAINE'S SOUTH AMERICAN POLICY BILAINE'S SOUTH AMERICAN POLICY.

LONDON, November 5.—The Standard, commenting on the alleged project of Blaine against any annexation of Peruvian territory by Chill, says: Considering the circumstances existing in South America, it would simply be offering a premium for aggressive combinations, if annexation were recognized as the right of the more powerful. So far, therefore, Blaine has acted with a vigor which ought to commend itself to the world at large. But if he is not misinterpreted, he seems to sim 1843.

London, November 5.—A curions plan has been adopted in some parts of west Ireland with the view of keeping the "No rent" manifesto before tenants. It takes the form of a promissory note, which has been circulated among farmers attending the fair. The note is a promise to pay rent on the day Parnell, Davitt and other suspects are released. It is intended the note shall be signed by tenants and sent to land-lords.

The Manchester Examiner publishes a vague statement that the Government Intends to release Parnell and his colleagues in time for them to participate in the proceedings of Parliament, provided the state of the country justifies the step, Dunin, November 6.—The number of suspect imprisoned is 244.

A manifesto signed "Patrick Egan," privately circulated throughout Ireland, advises farmers to pay no rent, avoid the land court, and hold their harvest.

Brrin, November 5.—The Reichstag will open on the 17th inst. Prospect of co-alition between Clericals and Conservatives propriation made by the last General Assembly for the support of Longview Asylum."

THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

Wolfe's Faiture to Arouse the Masses—A Light Vote Predicted.

Pittssuran, November 6.—The election comes off Tuesday. There are a great many who are not aware of the fact. Others don't know who are running for office. It is safe to the case, and has caused no little.

SUSPICIOUS CASE OF BANK BOSBERY. SUPPLIOUS CASE OF HANK ROBBERT, ZURICH, November 5.—Burglars, Tuesday night, entered the bank of Walker & Co., this city, stole 75,000 francs and all negotiable securities, and burned the greater part of the books. The bank closed its doors Wednesday. Unpleasant surmises regarding the affair are current.

PEATURES OF GUY FAWKES' CELEBRATION.

LONDON, November 6 .- The usual Guy LONDON, November 6.—The usual Gny Fawkes' celebation was held last evening, and effigies of Glødstone, Parnell, Biggar and others were burned in the poorer districts of London, according as the Irish or English element predominated. No disturbance occurred. Among the effigies burned at Lewis, where the anniversary was, as usual, celebrated with great celat, was one of Guiteau.

THE POPE CONDEMNS THE LAND LEAGUE. LONDON, November 6.—A correspondent of the News says: The Pope expressed him-self strongly in the condemnation of the proceedings of the Irish Land League.

· CABLE NOTES. Several lives were lost in a hurricane at Several lives were lost in a hurricane at Rome.

An Athenstelegram states that the Grand Cordon of the Order of the Redeemer has been conferred upon J. Meredith Reed, formerly American Minister at Athens, in recognition of the eminent services he had rendered Greece.

Advices from Buenos Ayres to the 11th ultimo report that the United States Minister at Santiago informed the Chilian Government that his government would not interfere in negotiations for a treaty of peace with Peru.

Advices from Mecca up to the end of October are to the effect that the number of cases of cholem averaged fifteen daily. The number of piggims in the city, however, are 100,000.

are 100,000.

The number of applications to the land commission to fix a fair rent is 16,000.

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious valadies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained? BOSCHER'S GERMAN SYRUP has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Coughs, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German preciption, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this mediene is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Drugsts as to the truth of these remarks. Large sizes 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.